

Owens and Grocers Will Battle at Ball Park

A lumberman from Michigan
From loneliness did pine;
The day he met May Hoggan
He asked her "Will be mine?"

His friends wondered why he was
At work such a speedster;
He said: "I fell in love with her
The moment that I cedar."

Some Local Sport Chatter

The Fairmont Giants defeated Carolina at South Side park yesterday 7-0 in a good game. Johnson and Williams were the battery for the Giants and Finlay and Wilson for the visitors. The Giants want to play all teams. Communicate with Captain Henry Fuller, 415 Pennsylvania avenue. The Giants will play Watson at South Side park on Thursday afternoon.

Johnson opened the game last night with a line drive through short that almost took Kittle along with it.

Had Moody been playing the game the Bando would not have scored in the second inning. With two out and a man on first, Morrison hit one to Johnson at short, who turned to throw the ball to second for an easy force out, but Moody was asleep at the switch and by the time Johnson got the ball to first base Morrison was there and credited with an infield hit.

"Red" Byrne is in a bad slump with the stick. The big Glasie outfielder failed to get a single last night in three trips to the plate. Hopke robbed him of a hit the second time up with a beautiful running catch of a drive to left center.

Cleveland opened the series in New York by taking the first game and getting a firmer hold on first place.

Old Babe Adams won another game for the Pirates yesterday. Seems to be just as good as 10 years ago.

BANDO LOST FAST GAME

Unable to Hold Advantage Gained in the Second Round.

Monongah Glass came close to dropping another ball game to the Bando last night at South Side park, but the Glasies staged a rally in the fourth inning and put the game on ice. Only five innings were played, as the game was late getting started and the darkness had settled down at the end of the fifth round, making play impossible. "Red" Volger served as umpire last night and did real well, calling Bob Hood out on strikes once.

Steadman and Donlin started the game as pitchers, but neither one finished the contest. Keefe taking Steadman's place in the second round and Kittle finishing the game for the Bando.

Four hits and an error gave the Glasies three runs in the first half of the initial round. The Bando tallied once in the first on a base on balls to Boice and Burns' hit.

No runs were made by the Glasies in the second and third. The Bando scored four runs in the second after two were down, annexing five of their six hits in this inning. Hopke opened by being hit by a pitched ball. Long singled. Huffman and Donlin were easy outs. Morrison, Kittle, Boice and Burns all got hits, Boice making a double and four runs came over. Thompson walked. Keefe took Steadman's place and fanned Hopke.

In the fourth the Bando went to pieces and the Glasies made five runs on two hits, while two hits gave them their final run in the fifth. The Bando was helpless before Keefe. In the last of the fifth ANTWERP, Aug. 15.—America's powerful and well-balanced track and field team continued to gather honors in the second day of the seventh Olympiad. It outclassed all the other nations' combination but its members were not strong enough individually to win all the first place honors, particularly in the classic ancient pentathlon, in which the Finnish star, T. Lehtonen, proved to be the best all-around athlete.

In addition to the Americans scoring the greatest number of points, the only world record of the

The human mind is a different organism at a ball park than when dressed in its street clothes.

One has to develop a hop, skip and jump in his brain to be a regular fellow at ball game.

Umpires please take note. A Baltimore judge ruled that rooters at baseball games suffer from a mild form of insanity and are not altogether to blame when they shower an umpire with pop bottle contents.

The judge who let the Baltimore fan off with a fine instead of charging assault with intent to kill was probably a good fan himself.

People will say things at a ball game, do things at a critical point in the game, and think things when the tide turns for or against their wishes that would make good jazz but poor grammar.

The public, in general, controls itself to cheering, with perhaps a little booing now and then, at most ball parks.

One cannot get the same kick out of throwing a pop bottle as there was in the old-lager kind.

But for a that, an umpire is and always will be more or less of a target for overwrought minds of baseball bugs.

The school for umpires should include a course in artful dodging for, as the Baltimore judge said: "The insanity germs hatch rapidly at all ball parks."

This is the Safety Switch that complies with the State Fire Marshal's ruling

LITERALLY, thousands of Square D Safety Switches have been installed in factories and stores and homes throughout West Virginia since the ruling of State Fire Marshal John S. Horan abolishing the dangerous exposed knife switch.

Executives of big industrial plants, electrical contractors and dealers, property owners and private individuals—all have joined in complying with the fire marshal's ruling.

The crusade is a success. One by one, the deadly exposed knife switches are going—safety switches are being installed in their places. Thousands of dollars in property will be saved, scores of accidents and deaths will be averted, as a result of the fire marshal's ruling.

The illustration above shows what the Square D Safety Switch is, and why it is an absolute safeguard against shock, fire and industrial accident of any kind.

It is a simple knife switch in a pressed steel housing—externally operated. A handle on the outside does all the work.

Current cannot reach that handle, nor the box itself—tough, rugged insulation completely isolates all live parts. They are safely enclosed within steel walls.

The switch may be locked in the open position, too, while work is being done on the line; nobody can thoughtlessly turn on the current. This feature is saving many an electrician's life. "On" and "Off" positions are clearly indicated. The Square D Safety Switch is made in over 300 sizes, types, and capacities—for factories, office buildings and homes.

Square D Safety Switches are listed as standard for both fire and accident prevention by the Underwriters Laboratories of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Meet the requirements of the National Electrical Safety Code of the Bureau of Standards, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

The Square D Safety Switch is sold and installed by your electrical dealer and contractor. Architects and engineers are listing it as standard equipment. Ask any of them for further information—or write us direct.

Act NOW and protect your workmen, your family and your property against fire, shocks and other electrical hazards.

FAST GAME FOR FANDOM ON TONIGHT

Big Benefit Game at Ball Park on This Saturday Afternoon.

Owens and the Grocers will battle this evening at South Side park in a city league game, and the contest should be one of the best of the season. The Grocers have greatly improved during the last few weeks and will be able to do things interesting for the fans. Osborne or Kittle will be on the mound for the Bottles, while C. Long will likely be on the hill for the Grocers. It is expected that a big turnout of fans will witness the contest tonight.

A big benefit game will be staged Saturday at 4 o'clock between the Owens team and Monongah Glass. This is a regular league contest, but the price of admission will be set at 25 cents to help defray some of the expenses of the league which have become high on account of the fact that so many games have been postponed. The fans will have the option of paying 10 cents or 25 cents, but it is believed that the city league fans will be glad to pay the higher price to help out the league.

The game will be made a big event with the rooters at Monongah Glass and Owens. The Owens bunch is planning to make a lot of noise and will also make provision to convey the men from the ball park in time for the game. The Glasies will also put on a special program for the day. A game will be played at 2 o'clock between the Owens team and the Westinghouse club of Pittsburgh. These two teams will also battle on Friday afternoon.

Will Play Out League Program

That the trouble with the city league team can be traced to a few days and that no more games like that of last Saturday will take place at South Side park is the feeling of many city league managers. The meeting last evening decided that the city league schedule could be made and that Mining Machinery would play its schedule of games next week. The next team to face the Machinery will be the Owens team. Monongah Glass will take them on to-morrow evening. Monongah Glass will not clash with the Owens team from this Thursday on, as any more trouble between the up that would put Mining Machinery out of the running. The league would be forced to stop.

City league officials are going to meet within the next few days to make arrangements for playing some of the postponed games. The Owens and the Grocers are all the hardest hit parties.
